4. Complaints Handling Procedure

4.1 Receipt of Complaint

- All complaints should be submitted in writing, either electronically or in hard copy at complaints@jpmarkets.co.za or via the form on the JP Markets SA website.
- Clients can submit complaints to the Company's designated complaints email address, postal address, or through any other prescribed channel.
- The Compliance Officer is responsible for acknowledging receipt of the complaint within seven (7) business days.

4.2 Investigation and Resolution

- The Compliance Officer or an appointed designated person will investigate the complaint promptly.
- A written response addressing the complaint will be provided to the client within thirty (30) business days, unless exceptional circumstances warrant an extension, in which case the client will be informed of the delay.
- The response will include an explanation of the Company's findings and any proposed remedies or corrective actions.

4.3. Escalation

If the client is not satisfied with the response received, they may escalate the complaint to the relevant Ombudsman or regulatory authority as prescribed by the FAIS Act.

5. Engagement with Ombud and reporting

Should your complaint be referred to the Ombud, the following must be kept in mind:

- The FSP is required to be provided with a six-week period within which to resolve any complaint, before the FAIS Ombud will have jurisdiction.
- The FAIS Ombud will not adjudicate in matters where the claim is in excess of R800 000
- If you already instituted an action in a court of law in respect of this complaint the Ombud will not consider the complaint.
